

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT

GENERAL TREASURER'S OFFICE.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 1, 1912.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations:

In accordance with provisions of Section 19, Chapter 43 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1909, a detailed statement is submitted herewith of the receipts and disbursements of the treasury department for the year, ending December 31, 1911.

While the available cash in hand at the close of business for 1911 is not large, all demands made upon the treasury during the year have been promptly met and the outstanding floating debt of the State has been paid.

Additional revenue from the State tax, based upon existing laws may be expected for 1912, as the returns of the Boards of Assessors of the several towns and cities show an increase in valuation of real and personal estate: real, $12,298,600; personal, $3,941,074; a total of $16,239,674 over 1910.

Reference to the table below shows conclusively that unless the bills before the legislature providing additional revenue are made operative, appropriations for considerable sums, either for special objects or permanent improvements must await the future for payment.

Cash in treasury	$145,806 86
Union Trust certificates	6,594 64
Estimated receipts	2,510,412 00
	<hr/>	$2,662,813 50
Estimated payments, fixed charges	$2,091,999 00
Unexpended balances of special appropriations, subject to draft	233,815 00
1911 unpaid bills as re- ported by the State Auditor	130,207 46
	<hr/>	$2,456,021 46

During the year $70,000 State House Construction Loan bonds, due January, 1914, have been purchased and retired. The Sinking Fund Commission have funds sufficient to pay the balance, $130,000, of the bonds due at this time, and in fact could easily absorb the $400,000 due in 1924, if obtainable.

HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION BONDS.

The people having authorized the issue of six hundred thousand dollars Highway Construction bonds at the election held November 7th, 1911, the General Assembly will, no doubt, direct the treasury department to place the bonds on sale. If only part of the proceeds of the sale can be used for highway construction the present year it might be advisable to authorize the General Treasurer, with the advice of the Governor, or the Board of Public Roads, or both, to sell the bonds at such times and in such amounts as the condition of the market should warrant and the needs of the Board of Public Roads require.

The recommendation of his Excellency in his annual message that the denomination of the bonds should be reduced in order to be within the reach of small investors should receive due consideration. The mode of sale should also be carefully considered, whether by advertising for bids or by subscription at a flat rate. In this connection the treasurer's report of 1909 is quoted in relation to the issue of Harbor Improvement bonds which would seem to apply with equal force to the proposed issue of Highway Construction bonds.

"Recent legislation in our neighboring states, particularly Massachusetts, exempting all State and Municipal bonds from taxation and permitting savings banks to deduct from the deposits on which they pay a tax to the state the amount of state and municipal bonds they hold, will greatly restrict, if not wholly confine, the sale of our bonds to Rhode Island investors."

"The bonds should be sold to those who apply and in amounts they require, giving the individual of small means the same opportunity as the capitalist to make an investment absolutely safe and reap the advantage of the tax exemption clause."

The town of Warwick having failed to pay its State tax, due June 15th and December 15th, 1911, amounting to $42,676.20; the town of Johnston, due December 15th, 1911, amounting to $2,767.44, and the town of West Greenwich, due June 15th and December 15th, 1911, amounting to $667.48, a certificate to this effect has been forwarded to the Attorney General in accordance with the provisions of Section 18 of Chapter 43 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1909.

A detailed statement of the State House, Armory, Highway, Metropolitan Park, Penal and Reformatory Institutions and Harbor Improvement Sinking Funds and the Permanent School Fund, Touro Jewish Synagogue Fund, The Land Grant Fund of 1862, and a list of unpaid bills, due in 1911, is attached hereto.

In the appendix may be found a statement of the receipts and payments of the Hunters' License Fund, the list of deposits by sundry trust and insurance companies, the valuation of cities and towns for 1911, and a list of the sources of revenue and the amount derived from each.
